SOUTH CAROLINA MONEY. We will take South Carolina money at par in payment for subscriptions to the Parmor.

Our accomplished Sporting Editor spent the day in the country last Tuesday in bird-hunting. He carried along a very re markable gun. The twin-barrels are as fond of each other as two brothers, and one won't go off unless the other goes too. If one goes, the other is going with it in spite of the mischief. Birds were score. Our Sporting Elitor walked about fourteen miles without finding one. Late in the afternoon he was ing in his game bag but a spring chicken be had shot with a brick-bat in the vicinity of a under a tuft of grass in the corner of a fence. With that remarkable presence of mind and wonderful decision of character which secured him the proud and responsible position he now occupies in our Editorial corps, he stepped back six f et to give the dreaming animal a white man's chance, raised his piece, took deliberate aim, and fired. After recovering from the shock caused by the discharge of both barrelheavily loaded, the stars in the mean time having disappear d from his eyes, head vane d to pick up his game. But the inexperienced an unsophisticated quidrapid had very footishly become frightened at the report of the gun, and had taken to his heels. The shot, however, was a capital one, and add d fresh laurels to those already won by our Sporting Editor. About two feet from where the rabbit sat the curious speciator will perceive a newly dug hole under the lence, and if the owner of that field should neglect to have it stopped up, his corn will be rooted up by the pigs next Spring as sure as it is planted. MISS PATTI'S SECOND CONCERT.-Two of our contemporaries have already criticised the performances of the STRAKOSCH TROUPE, and another one of them will probably give us a touch of that style of thing this moraing. The members of that Troupe have made music, vocal and instrumental, their study for several years. We have no delinite recollection of ever having made it a study at all. Fortunately, nobody dares to say that in Miss Parri's lexicon there is any such word as fail; though one of our contemporaries thinks her voice poss sees less volume than that of Niagara; and we think it quite likely it does. We trust that she succeeded last night in disarming criticism. She attempted nothing that she did not sing with a beauty and bril-Hancy which struck us as being perfection itself. From the applause which followed, a grant many other people must have been struck in the same way.

Miss Parri and the Troupe will be in Columbia this evening, but will return and give two other concerts here this week-that is, on Friday and Saturday evenings.

MONUMENT TO DR. JOHN T. EDGAR.

We, the under-igned, are a committee appointed by the members and the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, in this city, to receive contributions, to be used in creeting a suitable monument over the remains of Dr. Engar.

The friends and admirers of Dr. Froan need only be informed how they can place their money for this purpose, at the disposal of the Session of the First Presbyterian Church in Nashville. Obviously, it will not be in our power to call upon one in a hundred of those who will be happy in this way to express their regard for the memory of the true friend, the mithful mini-ter, and the beloved pastor, now no more with us in the fl sh. You can give your money to either of us, when you meet us on the streets; or you can call upon us at our places of business; or you can remit your contributions by mail. Please be prompt and liberal, as we desire, by the first of January, 1861, to make our report to the congregation, PAUL F. EVE. WM. S. EARIN, wonderful piece of mechanism ever exhibited in our city is the Panopticon of D. C. La Rue, representing various scenes in the late 2 15 war in India. Here art has made one of her nearest approaches o nature, and the heart must be insensate which could fail to respond to the appeal which this scene makes to its sympathy.
